From Nancy Gartley: IRS Virtual InfoSession - Disability Employment Awareness Month: Wed., Oct. 5th, 1pm, “At the IRS, we believe in the abilities of all our employees, and we’re committed to hiring qualified individuals at all levels of our organization. Our goal, as an employer of individuals with disabilities, is to be a model within the federal government and for companies in the private sector.

During this information session, we will provide an overview of IRS benefits, the Schedule A hiring program and documentation requirements, how to apply for positions with the IRS, and provide tips for creating an effective resume. We will also have HR specialists available to answer question that you have about the application process.”
